Business was preceded by an Italian feast fest with ziti with meatballs and pizza along with the usual plentiful salad. Some kind soul provided cookies to boot.

JOE BEST arrived just in time to provide the thankful invocation and JACK WAGNER led song and Pledge. A surprised but nonetheless prepared DAVE STURTZ presented a Rotary Minute which lasted at least three. DAVE talked about his early exposure to Rotary through his father. Neither was impressed until DAVE helped start the Monroe East Rotary Club and began to see what good a small club could accomplish. The opportunity for community service afforded by a town-based club such as ours is really what keeps Dave a committed Rotarian. RON SHAW reviewed the article in the recent edition of Rotarian Magazine, which deals with food and water issues in Niger. The Rotary Foundation has provided some $700K to help alleviate some of these conditions but, as we know from our own SALVA DUT, these problems are not easily solved and exist in many areas of Africa.

Speaking of SALVA, won't you all please participate in supporting our effort to acquire a matching grant for Water for Sudan? Pledges should be directed to JACK BEST and you should expect to submit your checks to the Rotary Foundation through the club sometime in December.

There is still time for entries in the District Vocal/Oratorical Contest. Contact JOYCE for details.

Opportunities also apparently still exist for hosting a visiting Governor-elect and spouse.

The Penfield Rotary Club Christmas party will be held Tuesday evening, December 19, at 6:30 in the Dolomite Lodge at Town Hall Park. Bring an hors d'ouvres or a dessert to pass.

BILL PETHICK has FRAN FRUTCHEY'S address if you would like to send her a note or Christmas card. It sounds like she might enjoy the contact.

LPGA mall sales slots filled in nicely at today's meeting, but there are still openings. The more the merrier! Contact BILL PETHICK or ED SUMMERHAYS.

There was little joy or guilt this week in the fiscal department as not many opened their wallets. Probably saving up for that special gift for that special someone (my shirt size is Large Tall and my jacket is 44L). PRESIDENT-ELECT SEAN and DONNA welcomed new baby girl REESE. Congratulations! ED SUMMERHAYS sent along $4 to assuage his guilt for not being at the meeting. MARY NANINNI kicked in for a prolonged absence and for the pleasure of visiting ANGE MORETTI. This reporter also contributed for missing several meetings and I probably should have paid even more for missing the reason for JACK BEST'S self-imposed fine. (How many old-timers recognized South African exchange student HAYLEY GILL in the JACK BEST/GIL STOKES photo that was circulated?)

PROGRAM

Greece Rotary Club's LIZ RICHARDSON (President 2000-2001, a very good year) presented R.I.'s new focus on Public Relations or Media Image as it's becoming known.

By necessity, the "old school" way of going about our good deeds quietly is going away. We need to let everyone know about Rotary because: 1. Our new members come from the public. 2. We need public contributions for our fundraisers. And 3. We often need public support to cut red tape on some projects.

RON SHAW won $14 in the raffle but left the joker.

NEXT WEEK

DON ALHART on the Rotary Foundation. This would probably be a good meeting for guests because you know DON will do a fine job explaining what the Foundation does.

Joyce's Rx

As we launch into the busy season, let's remember what the holidays celebrate. It is not entirely gifts and parties for us. A prayer here and there and token of assistance and understanding to the needy will make life much more joyful
